

*Experience Archaeology!
Touch a piece of history at*

*Elden Pueblo Site Ambassador Days
Learn about Flagstaff's past- the people and their culture*

Weekends, May to October, from 10 am to 2 pm

- Learn about ancient technologies
- Try your hand throwing an atlatl or rabbit stick
- See a bull roarer in action, and learn how it was used
- See how native plants were used to make everyday household items
- Learn about ancient artistry, such as jewelry, rock art and pottery designs
- Take a tour of the prehistoric pueblo
- Learn about the prehistoric use of plants still growing at the Pueblo

Elden Pueblo is located on the west side Highway 89 at Townsend-Winona Road, about 2 miles north of the Flagstaff Mall

These events are FREE and open to the Public. The site is now ADA accessible.

Generously sponsored by support from:

